“Life after the war”

From August 5 to 26, we held another, the seventh, rehabilitation camp for war veterans who lost their eyesight while defending Ukraine. This time it was held in Bukovyna, in the city of Chernivtsi.

For three weeks, 5 blind veterans, accompanied by 5 coaches, learned to take care of their everyday life, navigate in an unfamiliar city, make purchases and communicate with a large number of people. It was a challenging stage, but the guys coped and took another step towards an independent, full-fledged life.

In August, we finally paid for the organization of the camp by paying:
3,645.38 EURO and 25,200 UAH

In total, the fund's share in the project amounted to: 10, 876.31 EURO and 25,200 UAH

The partners of this camp were
Contemporary view organization
Partnerschaftsaktion Ost im Bistum Magdeburg
National Assembly of People with Disabilities
CF “Let’s see the victory”
